which students excelling in a certain subject would teach it to others, allowing uninterrupted learning when there was a shortage of teachers. As the current Headmaster of Jalinder Nagar ZP School, he continues to innovate in the education space, and hopes to address other areas of community development.

Dattatray Ware brought innovation to education in Wablewadi, Pune, with the launch of the Zero-energy Tablet School. Despite initial enrollment challenges due to competition from high-profile CBSE institutions, Mr. Ware’s dedication and strategic approach led to a remarkable turnaround. Wablewadi ZP School is now highly sought-after, with over 2,500 students on the waiting list. He introduced the concept of a “Subject Friend”, through
